Complimentary Webinar to Showcase RadSite's High Tech Accreditation Programs

Session will highlight imaging standards and accreditation process

Annapolis, MD / PR Web / December 6, 2017 – RadSite™, a leading accrediting organization promoting quality-based imaging practices, will launch the first of the 2017-18 Winter Educational Series with RadSite Accreditation Overview on December 19, 2017 at noon EST. The webinar will provide an overview of RadSite as a market leader in imaging accreditation, its current and future standards, including changes to the MIPPA Accreditation Program (covering CT, MRI, PET and SPECT imaging systems), and an overview of the accreditation process. Click here to register.

The webinar will showcase the new accreditation online portal and best practices associated with navigating the application process. The presentation also will highlight reasons why demand for RadSite accreditation is expanding.

“The upcoming webinar series will offer an opportunity for imaging providers and others to learn about RadSite’s high tech imaging accreditation program,” says Bruce Reiner, MD, RadSite’s chief medical officer. “The first webinar will highlight why RadSite is uniquely positioned to positively impact quality, safety, education, and clinical outcomes in medical practices by using objective data-driven analysis.”

The panel will be moderated by Jonathan Ramirez, B.S. RT R CT, RadSite’s director of sales; and will include perspectives from Julie Irons, RadSite’s accreditation manager; and Bruce Reiner, MD, RadSite’s chief medical officer.

RadSite is one of just four organizations recognized by the U.S. Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) to offer advanced diagnostic imaging accreditation. RadSite also is recognized by over 300 private payers.

About RadSite™ (www.radsitequality.com)

Founded in 2005, RadSite's mission is to promote quality-based practices for imaging systems across the United States and its territories. In addition, RadSite is recognized by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) as an official accreditation organization under the Medicare Improvements for Patients and Providers Act (MIPPA) of 2008. RadSite's programs help assess, track and report imaging trends to enhance imaging procedures and outcomes. RadSite also offers educational programs, publishes issue briefs and underwrites research to raise awareness of patient safety issues and to promote best practices. The organization is governed by an independent board and committee system, which is open to a wide-range of volunteers to ensure transparency and accountability.
